

What to do —Telephone the community office to check availability, and to reserve a place. Complete the application form and return to our office. Please do not send cash, Cheques or postal orders only. Please make payable to Barnet FICS. Write your Child's name, address & course details on the back. A place cannot be guaranteed unless it is reserved by telephone. Payment must be received within 7 days of reservation.

If you have reserved your place by telephone and decide not to apply, please ring to cancel so that the place can be reallocated. The course fee is non-returnable unless organisers cancel the course. Participants who withdraw from a course are not entitled to a refund other than in exceptional circumstances (eg. In cases of certified prolonged illness), and that refund would be subject to an administrative charge. The organisers reserve the right to cancel the course, applicants will be advised, a credit offered, an alternative course arranged or monies refunded.
